

National Health Policy Roundtable

Time to Act: Health Reform is Everybody's Business

"There have been hundreds of reports in recent years that provide the evidence for why reform is needed... Many Australians are not achieving good health outcomes...Health system reform needs leadership from the business and community sectors..."

Date: Friday 14th September 2007

Time: Arrive 12 noon (to commence at 12:30pm)
Concludes at 2:30pm
A light lunch will be served on arrival

Location: Edwin Flack Room, PriceWaterhouse Coopers,
Freshwater Place, 2 Southbank Boulevard, Melbourne

Facilitator: Norman Swan (ABC Radio National)

Program

12:30 - 12:40pm Welcome from PriceWaterhouse Coopers
Noreen Dowd, Senior Health Partner

12:40 - 12:50pm Revitalising Health Reform: Time to Act
Sharon Willcox, Health Policy Solutions

12:50 - 1:00pm Discussion

1:00 - 1:50pm Panel Presentations
Facilitated by Norman Swan

- ✦ Peter Brooks, Executive Dean, Faculty of Health Sciences, The University of Queensland
- ✦ Karen Carey, Senior Consumer Representative, Consumers Health Forum of Australia
- ✦ Robert Fitzgerald, Commissioner, Productivity Commission
- ✦ Lyn Roberts, Chief Executive Officer, National Heart Foundation (Australia)
- ✦ Michael Armitage, Chief Executive Officer, Australian Health Insurance Association
- ✦ Noreen Dowd, Senior Health Partner, PriceWaterhouse Coopers

1:50 - 2:30pm Discussion

2:30pm Close of Event
Brian Oldenburg, AIHPS & Monash University

Supported by:

For more information or to register:

Email: rsvp@aihps.org

Website: www.aihps.org